

The official answers

The Communication Design Partnership 2011 Christmas Pop Quiz

A big thank you to all who entered. We did receive a HUGE number of entries.

The winning entry scored almost MAXIMUM points (49.5 out of 50 – congratulations to the Jones family from Devon).

Here are the official answers. Some may make you groan. Nos. 24 and 32 sorted the men and women from the boys and girls.

But please note that the Judge's decision is final. Except if your answer was better and more clever than ours.

We wish you all a prosperous, healthy and happy 2012.
